VERIFICATION TO MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

TRUE THE VOTE

By: _____

1. "I, Phillip C. Harding III, verify the following is true and correct under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America. See 28 U.S.C. § 1746.
2. I served as district coordinator for District 4 in Harrison County.

3. I was at the Harrison County Election Commission's Office Tuesday, July 1, 2014 on or about 2pm. I was assisting in cleaning out the supply bins that the poll managers used and restoring the pens, pencils, posters, etc.

4. In a one of the bins I found a small stack of provisional ballots, unopened. I gave the provisional ballots to an Executive Committee member who took control of them. I also found absentee ballot bags in several of the supply bins. Some had opened envelopes and applications in them. I took the applications and envelopes out because I did not know what to do with them, but believed they should be saved. After setting them aside I saw another volunteer dispose of them at executive committee members' direction.

5. Further, affiant sayeth not."

Phillip C. Harding III
